NORTH CAROLINA NOTES.

Wilmington Review: There will probwinnington Review: There will prob-ably be a contest in the courts over the subscription voted by the city, unde-certain conditions, to the Wilmington Onslw and East Carolina Railroad, We hear, however, that the road will be built, no matter what the decision may be. It is probable that nearly $50,000 have already been expended by the company. The road is graded almost to New River, say within ten miles of tha stream, and large contracts for cross ties have been made which are being delivered all along the line. The road wil go to Jacksonville. A great catch of gray trout along the coast from Morehead City to Wilming ton has nearly ceased, but numbers are yet brought in. Fish weighing three pounds have sold for a cent. Half t million have been caught, and the resul is much ready money for the fishermen.

J. G. Shar nonliouse & Co., dealers it agricultural implements, etc., at Char lotte, made an assignment Saturday Their liables are said to be $15,000, with assets nominally equal in value. While an eleven-year-old son of sheri Wheeler, of Guilford, was hunting San uring afternoon his gun was accidentally discharged, and the load of sho tore away the back of his skull, causing instant death. He was walking across a luring way rains the a log and was using the gun as a sup-

Mrs. Cleveland's the Prettiest.

Mrs. Harrison, when she went to see Mr. Mansfield's "Richard III." last Mon-day night, found an offering of roses from the actor in her box. But a shrewd observer with a long memory declares that the boquet was by no means so beauti-ful as the one which Mr. Mansfield sent to Mrs. Cleveland when she first went to see him act in Washington.
